Math 128/Math 148 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Prerequisites 2. Book 	Low Cost Textbooks <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - If you have textbook costs less than $50, then you can get that designation on the class schedule. Forward that to Suzanne, if you have that for your section. “Enhanced” classes <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Are students going to want to sign up for a class called “xxxx with support”? - Instead it might be more appealing to call it “xxxx enhanced.” Senate Update <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Senate has purview over FPD credit and what you can claim. Please let Hal know if you have questions about this. - Expect more communication from the Senate in the future. - Look for a notice about new bills coming out of the CA legislature that may affect us.

	Preference Sheets <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Please submit preference sheets so James can schedule you as close for what you would like to have. - You could use the current spring schedule as a basis for your preferences. - Expect winter intercession to come back some time in the future. We will need to consider what courses we would want to offer in the 5-week format. Math 128/Math 148 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - We are going to be required to submit a data template justifying the Math 128 prerequisite for Math 148. - The data that we have does not appear to justify the Math 128 prerequisite for Math 148. Other discussion <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - We should plan on having Math 150 be the first course in the STEM pathway for any degree that has Math 150 as its first math course. - There are still several programs that use Math 140 as part of the degree, so we expect that Math 140 will stay in our schedule.
